PROGRAM: Dorothy Pew - Hope West

Program director Dorothy Pew spoke to the Club about hospice services as well as grief counseling available through Hope West. It is a non-profit organization providing comprehensive, expert and collaborative care for people facing serious illness and grief, particularly at end-of-life. She also presented her ideas on maintaining a medical durable power of attorney as well as the necessity of having close and clear discussions regarding end-of-life care with the person chosen to be the patient's representative.
