ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- There was 36% attendance at the meeting.
- Crawford Pioneer Days coming up on June 9-11. The melodrama will be presented on Thursday (6/9) and Saturday (6/11). Lots of other fun activities such as the Outhouse Race. The parade is wonderful. The $10K fireworks show at the reservoir is fabulous.
- North Fork High School student and talented high jumper Leah Ellenberger needs $2,200 to attend the Olympic training center in Colorado Springs. Suggested that Rotary join with the community and donate $100. Needs to have it by July 15th.
- The ReMax yard sale made $3,000 for the North Fork Children's Christmas Party.
- Two of the students chosen to attend RYLA are going. A third is unable to attend.
- The Cherry Days Pancake Breakfast will be taking place from 7:30AM to 9:30AM on Monday, July 4th at Paonia Town Hall. Various logistical considerations were discussed and decided. Volunteers doing setup should arrive at 6:30AM. Others can show up at 7:00AM.
- Eleni Stelter passed away on May 17. Donations made in her name should go to the Rotary Scholarship program. Her son Dino had received a Rotary scholarship when graduating high school, and after a slow start, went on to earn a Ph.D. in astrophysics.
