PROGRAM: Carl Clay - Hotchkiss-Crawford Historical Society

Bob McHugh introduced Carl Clay, President of the Hotchkiss-Crawford Historical Society. He spoke to the Club about Sense of Place, it's application to the quality of life in this unique valley and the wisdom of encouraging young people to appreciate the history of the place where they are growing up. Bringing this history to life and making it available is a goal. Mr. Clay pointed out that "It's not when you possess a place, but when the place possesses you".
