PROGRAM: Jess Deegan - Alzheimer's and resources in Delta County

Jess F. Deegan II Ph.D. presented an overview of this chronic or resistive disorder of metal processes that is caused by brain disease or injury. Dr. Deegan presented statistics by age group on what percentage of the population is likely to encounter this disease. He gave the group some hope by revealing new medications coming on-line. He then passed on advice for how to interact with persons beset with the disease.
