PROGRAM: Judy Reed - The Grange

The Grange was founded shortly after the Civil War to help bring the country back together. With its rural nature, it eventually spread out west. By 1930 The Grange was established locally in the North Fork. The Grange Hall was built in 1950 and remains today at the start of Grange Road (off Black Bridge Rd.) northeast of Paonia. Meetings, bake sales, yard sales, classes and social activities take place at this location. It's a country tradition.
