Carol's Report on her PETS experience.

She said it was "really good" and invigorating. Most Rotary clubs seemed to be more business oriented and have a lot more younger (pre-retirement) members than our Club. Need to decide if we want to move in that direction or remain more of a social club. This will require, among other things, finding a more businesslike meeting environment.

INVIGORATING MOMENT: None today

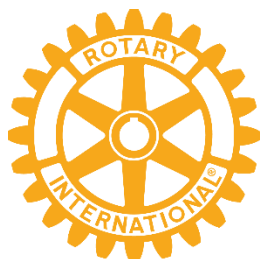

PROGRAM: Matt Laimanger: Current law enforcement experiences in Paonia

Paonia police chief Matt Laimanger spoke to the Rotary Club about the Paonia Police Department this week. He talked about his people, how they were organized, the equipment they utilized and the service they provide to the citizens. He pointed out some of the main concerns we have in the community and how they were dealing with them. An emphasis was placed on how the staff works together solving problems that surface from time to time.
